

Hurricane Florence Unemployment News - South Carolina & Virginia

As a result of Hurricane Florence, state unemployment agencies are preparing for impact. CCC spoke with affected agencies this morning (September 13, 2018) to ensure we have the latest information on how each agency is preparing for impact. CCC will continue to monitor the state unemployment agencies and up date you as details become available.

South Carolina

The Department of Employment and Workforce has indicated they are closed. They have limited staff available to assist claimants and employers. It is recommended that on-line resources are utilized during the emergency. The anticipate reopening Monday September 17, 2018.

DUE TO OFFICE CLOSURES RELATED TO HURRICANE FLORENCE, DEW HAS LIMITED STAFF AVAILABLE TO RECEIVE CALLS.
CLICK HERE TO ACCESS YOUR ONLINE BENEFITS ACCOUNT.

Virginia

The Virginia Employment Commission has indicated they are operating as normal. There are a limited number of offices that are closed. Please see below:

- Hampton - Closed September 11- 16, 2018
- Eastern Shore, Norfolk, Portsmouth - Centers will be closed September 12 - 14, 2018.
- Newport News Adjudication Center - Closed September 13 - 14, 2018
- The Virginia Career Works - Lake Country Center (South Hill) - closed 3pm September 13 - September 14, 2018.