

TERESA GEORGE

Regional Manager, Operations

Teresa George began her career in workforce solutions in 2003 with FJC Security Services as an HR Administrative Assistant. In this position, Teresa assisted with the administration of company wide HR policies ensuring that they were in compliance with state and federal requirements. She was also responsible for processing employment verifications, unemployment claims, and the locations workers' compensation program.

In 2010 Teresa left her employment with FJC to gain additional experience in Human Resources. Accepting roles with Allied Barton Security and Adecco/Quest Services, Teresa gained further experience in managing both workers' compensation and unemployment cost management programs from the employer's perspective.

As an analytical person, Teresa realized that the unemployment system was something in which, she could make a bigger difference by working with other employers. In 2014, she went to work with PriceWaterhouseCoopers as Tax Process/Unemployment Specialist. In this position, Teresa was responsible for monitoring employer programs for consistency and accuracy, preparing daily reports, and responding to state agencies on behalf of employers seeking tax credits.

In June 2016, Teresa joined Corporate Cost Control as a Senior Claims Analyst. During her tenure with CCC, she has developed a great understanding of our processes and, at the same time, has garnered great praise from both clients and Account Executives for her exemplary customer service. Teresa's experience of Human Resources, Tax, WOTC and Unemployment makes her unique. She has a very well rounded background which provides her clients the ability to receive personalized daily training through feedback as to how policies can affect unemployment results and, ultimately, tax savings.

In 2020, Teresa was promoted to the Regional Manager of Operations. In this role, Teresa will use her keen ability to understand a client's needs and processes and adapt them to work within CCC's processes and systems. This will ensure her team is successful in increasing customer satisfaction and results..

Teresa loves spending time with her husband and three beautiful children. She is also passionate about helping others. She is a board member of a local non-profit organizations which helps inner city youth fulfill their potential and help find their undiscovered abilities through education, arts, sports and entertainment.
